

Welcome

Sandra Spirig

Rolf Schuler

Carolina Keller Jupitz

Anna Neukom Chaney

Sandra Spirig | Partner
Attorney at law, LL.M., Certified Specialist SBA
Inheritance Law

Sandra Spirig specializes in Swiss and international inheritance law, offering advice to Swiss and foreign private clients on estate planning (wills, pre- and postnuptial agreements, inheritance agreements and foundations) and on the handling of estates. She further represents clients in inheritance litigation before national authorities and courts. Her other areas of expertise include matrimonial property and divorce law, child and adoption law, adult protection law (advance care directives and living wills) as well as association and foundation law. Sandra Spirig has been a Counsel since 2016 and has now been made a Partner.

Rolf Schuler | Partner
Attorney at law

Due to his former function as judge, Rolf Schuler is an acknowledged specialist in questions of domestic and international litigation and resolving of disputes. He has extensive and longstanding experience in bankruptcy proceedings, also as FINMA appointed bankruptcy liquidator and administrator. He further advises and represents his clients in white collar crime proceedings as well as in inheritance and employment matters. In 2019, Rolf Schuler joined Thouvenin Rechtsanwälte as a Partner.

Carolina Keller Jupitz | Counsel
Attorney at law

As experienced litigator, Carolina Keller Jupitz advises and acts as counsel for national and international clients in disputes concerning contract and corporate law, inheritance law as well as debt enforcement and bankruptcy law. Her additional expertise is white collar crime and international mutual legal assistance in criminal matters. She has a proven track record in cross-border cases of money laundering and corruption. In 2019, Carolina Keller Jupitz joined Thouvenin Rechtsanwälte as a Counsel.

Anna Neukom Chaney | Counsel
Attorney at law, Certified Specialist SBA
Employment Law

As a Certified Specialist SBA Employment Law Anna Neukom Chaney has in-depth knowledge of Swiss labor and employment law. She advises and accompanies her clients in all aspects of an employment relationship under private and public law, namely from the beginning, during and at the termination of an employment contract. Her further expertise are work permits and data protection in employment related matters. In addition, she has extensive experience in domestic and international litigation. In 2019, Anna Neukom Chaney joined Thouvenin Rechtsanwälte as a Counsel.

Your partner for:

- Corporate and Commercial, M&A
- Litigation and Arbitration
- Private Clients and Entrepreneurs

New: With strengthened competence in white collar crime.