Michael (Mike) Bösch is a lawyer with over two decades of professional experience. His practice focuses on contentious and non-contentious matters concerning domestic and cross-border corporate and contractual issues. This provides him with a robust and profound understanding of clients' needs, from devising bespoke strategies to accommodating any cost sensitivities that may arise. His expertise in dispute resolution serves clients both within the board and before tribunals or courts by ensuring that their best interests are protected and pursued at all times.

1 Areas of Practice

Arbitration, Litigation, Corporate and Commercial, Insolvency and Restructuring.

1.1 Dispute Resolution: Expertise and Recent Experience

In the field of dispute resolution Michael is specialized in commercial arbitration where he has acted as counsel and arbitrator in over 50 international and national arbitration cases, both under institutional rules of the ICC, LCIA and Swiss Arbitration Centre etc. and ad hoc. His cases involved a wide area of matters, in particular relating to agency/distribution, sale of goods and construction (including turn-key projects) but also regarding shareholders' agreements and M&A transactions. Michael also represents clients before Swiss courts.

Michael's recent arbitration experience as counsel includes:

- Representation of a US company against a sovereign state in a dispute about commodities
- Representation of a Belgium engineering company against a Russian steelmaker in a dispute about the revamping of a galvanization line
- Representation of two Swiss private bankers in a dispute arising out of a shareholders' agreement
- Representation of a Dutch company and its beneficial owner in a dispute about conditions precedent in a share purchase agreement
- Representation of a Russian lease company in a dispute about the purchase of industrial equipment

- Representation of an Austrian steel trader against several of its buyers for breach of contract
- Representation of a Swiss commodity trader against an Afghan company in a dispute arising out of a purchase agreement

Michael's recent arbitration experience as arbitrator includes:

- Chairman in a license and supply dispute (Swiss Rules)
- Sole arbitrator in a dispute about a turnkey project (Swiss Rules)
- Sole arbitrator in a dispute about cryptocurrency and marketplace (Swiss Rules)
- Sole arbitrator in a dispute about a mandate agreement (ICC Rules)
- Co-arbitrator in a sport-related arbitration (Swiss Rules)
- Co-arbitrator in a joint venture dispute (ICC Rules)

1.2 Corporate and Commercial: Expertise

Michael advises national and international companies (including Fortune 500), ranging from the manufacturing and the financial services industry to the IT industry, in generally all corporate and commercial matters.

His corporate work includes particularly assisting clients in connection with the establishment of (group) companies, capital stock increases and decreases, (intra-group) mergers and the daily corporate and governance work. Michael takes pride being the local counsel for all corporate work of the Swiss subsidiaries of Microsoft Corporation for more than 15 years.

He strives to maintain a long-lasting relationship with his clients and to act as their trusted advisor.

Michael serves as board member of companies such as United Maching Solutions Management AG and the Swiss Wal-Mart group companies (for more examples see below). He also acts as secretary to the board and as registered signatory of several companies.

2 Credentials

Lexology (fka Who's Who Legal): Arbitration and Litigation

For many years, Michael is being recommended by Lexology in the category Partner both in arbitration and litigation.

For his arbitration work he is praised by peers and clients as follows:

"Michael Bösch comes highly recommended by market sources for his top-tier litigation practice advising clients both domestically and abroad."

"Michael Bosch stands out as a leading practitioner who is "very well known in the market" for his work acting as counsel and arbitrator, both nationally and internationally."

"He is excellent as counsel and arbitrator" "Michael is a very knowledgeable, well-prepared and pragmatic arbitration practitioner; I highly recommend him" "He is very easy to work with and an excellent strategist". He "excels as counsel and arbitrator."

"He is knowledgeable, swift and a go-to in Switzerland" "He is a very well-rounded and savvy disputes lawyer" "A sharp-thinking practitioner."

"Michael Bösch is "a sharp-thinking" lawyer, and "epitomises the practitioner and arbitrator who gives succinct and no-nonsense advice and decisions."

"Michael Bösch is lauded by peers as "an excellent lawyer" who is "intelligent, knowledgeable and responsive."

"According to peers "it is impossible not to recommend" Michael Bösch for his vast knowledge of arbitration proceedings and client-oriented approach."

For his commercial litigation work Michael is praised by peers and clients as follows:

"Michael Bösch is a highly regarded practitioner who draws praise for his expert handling of complex commercial and civil litigation."

"Michael Bösch is commended for his strong litigation practice, where sources recognise his skill at giving "succinct and no-nonsense advice". He has notable expertise in corporate and contract-related matters, as well as arbitrations."

Chambers and Partners: Arbitration and Litigation

"He was one of the top arbitrators that I ever dealt with. He is at his peak; I have dealt with multiple arbitrators and he is one of the top arbitrators I have ever met."

"Michael Bösch at Thouvenin Rechtsanwälte is the main voice. I am assuming he is the lead in most of the argument being made, the presentations to the tribunal. Overarchingly, he is in charge of all of the workflow of the other attorneys that are supporting the case."

"Michael Bösch is a very well-known figure in arbitration."

"He understands the important aspects. Above everything, he is careful, which is very important. It was a really good experience. He is really a great help. He has a lot of experience in arbitration. He represented us very well,"

"The matter is very complex. We're very grateful that he [Michael] has so much experience, really impressive and able to explain what happened. We were represented very well. They're very professional, provide constant contact, and we're very, very well-received. Certainly a high price, but it was well worth it. No complaints, absolutely nothing."

Legal 500: Litigation as well as Corporate and Commercial

Legal 500 recommends Michael for litigation praising him as "dynamic".

Michael is recognized by Legal 500 for his corporate and commercial work.
